

GUILDFORD LANE GALLERY NEWSLETTER

AUCTIONS, GARDENS & ART

OH!

AND IT'S ROB'S BIRTHDAY, SO COME DOWN TO GLG TONIGHT FROM 4.30 TO 9.00PM FOR SOME FUN AND FOOD!

MELBOURNE CITY COUNCIL GREEN CANOPY

GLG is very excited to be supporting Melbourne's Green Canopy project. Through our fostering of creative environments, both musical and artistic, we can afford to install this delightful addition for the visual enjoyment of the residents and visitors to Guildford Lane. Designed and installed by Mark Paul an artist with a strong vision who wishes to see more green walls appearing across our urban landscape.

GLG AUCTION

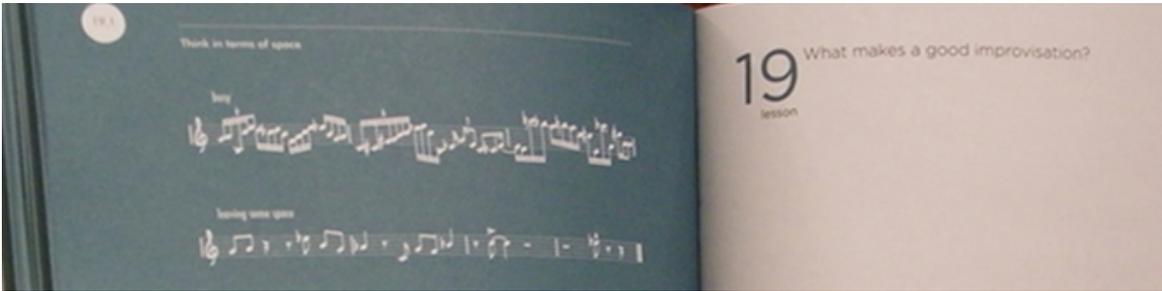

And for all you artistic types with three million plus to spare, Rob has decided to sell the Guildford Lane Gallery building and you will all be informed when he relocates at a later date. GLG will be auctioned at noon on Friday June 24. For more information please contact Marcus Quinn at Knight Frank Real Estate on 0428 495 152.

START PLAYING JAZZ PIANO NOW!

Our favourite Jazz pianist Steve Sedergreen has just released Start Playing Jazz Piano Now! The book is available for purchase from Steve's website or from Piano Time – 109 York St, South Melbourne.

Steve directs the Friday Night Jazz workshops here at GLG, from 6 – 9pm, so come down and check him out tonight!

HOW THE ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT STAYS ALIVE WITHIN THE MYER FAMILY GENE POOL.

Today's Financial Review Magazine (27/05/11) features a five page spread on a great, compassionate, open minded family. We need more of them.

Southwalk - Melanie Dodd

iPod Mash - Scott Mitchell

EXHIBITIONS

RMIT ARCHITECTURE

Monday May 30 – Saturday June 25

The RMIT Architecture PhD Open Examinations seek to explore and demonstrate architectural practice through the process of projects by the practices of muf (London) and muf_aus (Melbourne). The PhD's consist of a matrix of eleven projects undertaken by the practices which explore the alternate roles and personas played out through the objects and things created.

1/10 'Looking Forward, Native Orchid' July 2001

LOOKING FORWARD

Monday July 4 – Saturday July 30

Linda Fish presents Looking Forward, a series of Small Figurative Bronze sculptures, and Lino Prints.

Friday Night Jazz

Ad Hoc Lunchtime Sessions

MUSIC AT GLG

FRIDAY NIGHT JAZZ

Friday Night Jazz this week will feature classical piano from 4.30, followed by Steve Sedergreen's Jazz workshop from 6.00. You never know who will appear with Steve Sedergreen, previous weeks have featured vocals from surprise guests Noria Letts and the glorious alto Benny Dimas. So come along and enjoy the atmosphere and listen to some amazing music!

Tickets are $10/ Students $5

AD HOC MUSIC COLLECTIVE

Monthly Friday Lunchtimes from 1.00pm

Next Sessions June 3rd & July 1st at 1.00pm

Ad Hoc Music Collective is a body of esteemed musicians that experiment in the creative process of composing music through workshops and performances. Come along to the performances with your lunch and unwind with Ad Hoc.

Baritone Phillip Caloagno & mezzo soprano Caroline Vercoe.

Len Vorster & La Prima Opera director Alison Rea Jones

OPERA IN THE LANEWAY

Sunday June 12th from 7.00 – 9.00pm - Drinks from 6.00pm

We are delighted to announce that the Much loved Opera in the Laneway will return in June, presented by La Prima Opera.